

Betting

Application: Remote screens showing racing with low delay, recording and Live camera views

Remote Screens

Description: Existing feeds from Cameras TVs or Set Top Boxes can be encoded using Antrica encoders via their HDMI or DVI output. These streams are sent to remote locations where they can be viewed on a PC tablet or remote screen in super low latency. Racing images can be recorded for reviewing at a later stage using low cost CCTV 'Video Management Software' or USB memory.