Re: Invitation to Bid B-19025-19
Telecom Merchandise for Resale and Spare Parts for OUHSC Information Technology

Dear Vendor:

This letter constitutes an acceptance of your bid response to the referenced Request for Proposal (RFP), as described below. The University holds your response to this RFP as a legal offer to contract and thereby communicates the University's formal acceptance of such offer, as described below.

As stated in the RFP, the contract resulting from this RFP is comprised of the following documents:

- All specifications, terms conditions, and other particulars addressed by this RFP, whether in its original form or as amended by addenda;
- Supplier's responses, affidavits, certifications, and other information provided in the response, to the extent they do not change the terms of the RFP;
- Results of any final negotiations on those matters eligible for negotiations, and
- Any additional agreements and/or mutual stipulations of the parties.

Under no circumstance shall any provision be effective if it is now or is later found to be in conflict with state statute or other superior directive. As stated in the RFP, in the event of a conflict between or among any provision contained in the resulting Contract, such conflict shall be resolved in the following order, most effect to least effect.

1. Original RFP
2. Negotiations on those matters eligible for negotiation
3. Additional Agreements and/or stipulations agreed upon by the parties
4. Supplier's Proposal

The University contract administrator is Dustin Moore. The effective date of this contract is July 1, 2018 and ending June 30, 2019.

The University looks forward to a mutually beneficial relationship with your firm.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "DM", written over a white background.

Dustin Moore, Senior Buyer
