

Does your mobile network provide staff access to critical information for the best patient care?

85%

of physicians use mobile devices to access patient records and test results

BENEFITS

- Faster access to Web-based information
- Quicker response to patient needs for increased satisfaction
- Better anytime, anywhere access to discharge instructions, clinical information and expert collaboration to reduce readmissions
- Emergency notifications that reach all staff, regardless of where they are
- Instant access to hospital systems, test results and patient information for increased productivity

Building or upgrading your wireless network and not sure where to start?

Anixter is your one stop resource that can offer you:

Complete solutions from industry-leading manufacturers

Close partnerships with carrier-approved integrators

Advice on wireless strategies, budgets and solutions

Technical expertise and resources

Contact your local Anixter sales representative, visit anixter.com/wireless or email wireless@anixter.com.