Vista Architectural Columns offer the large capacity necessary to feed numerous workstations or supply a large area's power, communication or audio/video requirements.

CHALLENGE SOLVERS

- Vista Architectural Columns provide an easy way to support and connect to digital signage in open spaces. Designed to complement any décor, these columns allow users to hang a flat screen both horizontally and vertically.
- The columns provide easy access to power in even the busiest, most trafficked open environments and satisfy the need to charge today's must-have digital devices, including mobile phones, laptops and tablets.
- Hanging and floor-mounted Vista multiservice columns offer the flexibility to meet the demanding needs of laboratory-specific activity, allowing for access to the services needed without compromising safety or aesthetics.
